APPOINTS A RECEIVER FOR CUMBERLAND FAIR

Association Alleged By Bondholder to Be Unable to Meet Its Obligations.

Special Dispatch to The Star. CUMBERLAND, Md., February 10.—Judge Henderson today appointed D. Lindsey Sloan, attorney, receiver for the Cumberland Fair and Agricultural Association on petition of George E. Deneen, secretary, who is a heavy stockholder. The association, through Carl C. Hetzel, president, admitted the fairgrounds, which cover a large acreage, are controlled by Mertens Sons of Cumberland and Washington, promoters of the Great Green Ridge Valley orchards, against whom bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted in Washington and Baltimore. The association was incorporated in 1908 and has since been holding an annual fair, with races. But one year, according to Mr. Deneen, did the fair make a profit. Mr. Deneen is the owner of five bonds of the defendant company, par value, $2,500. The interest, as well as the mortgage securing the bonds, has been in default. The fair association executed a mortgage on all its property to W. Bladen Lowndes, now of Baltimore, in 1908. Deneen is also a creditor in the sum of $500. It is stated that the association has no revenues of any kind to meet its obligations.

The court orders the property sold and the proceeds distributed to the payment of taxes, the mortgage and all liens subsequent thereto and dissolve the corporation.

MRS. STEWART ARRESTED BY PHARMACY INSPECTOR

Is Charged With Forging Names of Physicians to Prescriptions for Morphine.

Mrs. Pearl Virginia Stewart, thirty-four years old, 522 Kenyon street, yesterday afternoon was walking along Georgia avenue with her husband, when she was surprised by Pharmacy Inspector Sanders and Harry Evans, his assistant, who had a warrant for her arrest. The officers said Mrs. Stewart was inclined to resist arrest until she was assured that prompt compliance on her part would prevent a street scene. She then went with the officers to police headquarters.

Charges of forgery and violating the pharmacy law were preferred against her, and it being alleged that she was under the influence of a narcotic, she was taken to Washington Asylum Hospital. If her condition shows signs of improvement by tomorrow morning it is probable that she will be arraigned in Police Court.

Mrs. Stewart, the pharmacy inspector stated, is alleged to have forged the names of reputable physicians to prescriptions for morphine, using fictitious names, and obtained the quantities of the narcotic mentioned in the prescriptions.

The inspector said Mrs. Stewart told him she formed the habit as a result of the drug being administered to her in a hospital fifteen years ago.

GARDEN CITY MOVEMENT TAKEN UP BY SENATORS

Hearing Held by Subcommittee on Resolution for Investigation.

A hearing was held Friday afternoon before a subcommittee of the Senate committee on agriculture and forestry, on the resolution introduced recently by Senator Sheppard of Texas, proposing that a special commission be appointed by the Senate to make a complete study and investigation of the whole subject of garden cities and industrial towns in this country. Senator Sheppard introduced his resolution several weeks ago, and it greatly interested in the subject. He presided at the hearing.

Richard B. Watrous, secretary of the American Civic Association, was called upon to explain the garden city movement as it has been developed in England and in some other European countries, and in connection with his statement he explained the extent to which the idea is taking hold in this country.

Large Employers Aid.

Mr. Watrous pointed out the great and widespread interest that is being taken by manufacturers and large employers of labor in providing for their operatives conveniently located residential towns and making possible the rental or purchase of homes in those towns on easy terms, where the advantages of the best conditions of outdoor living, with pleasant social surroundings, may be enjoyed. He stated to the committee that there is growing appreciation of the need of better housing accommodations for the millions of operatives working in the centers of industrial activity, and also pointed out that there are opportunities for developing garden cities near Washington to be the homes of government employees.

PROGRAM OF SCHOOLS FOR NATIONAL WEEK OF SONG

Director Cogswell Arranges for Observance of Three Days, Beginning Monday, February 19.

Children in the public schools of the District of Columbia are to participate in the "national week of song," which is to be held beginning February 19. In view of the fact that the anniversary of the birth of George Washington falls on Thursday of that week the children have only three days of school, and therefore will have but three days of song.

Dr. Hamlin E. Cogswell, director of music, has issued instructions for the program to be followed during those three days. Monday, February 19, is to be devoted to folk songs; Tuesday, February 20, is to be devoted to favorite song classics, and Wednesday, February 21, and the last school day before the Washington anniversary celebration, is to be devoted to patriotic songs. Programs for the days follow: February 19—"Swanee River," "Old Kentucky Home," "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Home, Sweet Home." February 20—"Pippa's Song," "Haven's Lullaby," "The Lost Chord," "Sweet and Low," "All Through the Night" and "The Spacious Firmament." February 21—"America," "Red, White and Blue," "Hail Columbia," "Dixie," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Auld Lang Syne" and "Star Spangled Banner."

Drama League Players "At Home." Members of the Drama League Players will be "at home" to their friends tonight from 8 to 10 o'clock at the studio in the rear of 1322 V street northwest. ## EVANGELIST PORTRAYS REAL CHRISTIAN WORK Uses Story of Woman at the Well as Theme for Stirring Sermon.

That the man or woman who is touched with the saving grace of Christ immediately goes out to tell the story and brings others to the same happy realization, was the central theme of Evangelist Gypsy Smith, Jr., in his sermon in the tabernacle last evening when he pointed out what true conversion will do for the individual.

The evangelist took for his topic the story of the woman at the well in the 4th chapter of St. John, to whom Christ gave the spiritual water of life, and she in turn became an evangelist by going back to her Samaritan town and repeating to all she met, "Come, see a man who told me all that ever I did. Is not this the Christ?"

TO MUSTER OUT BATTERY B.

Unless Ordered Otherwise Work Will Begin Friday.

Unless orders to the contrary are received from the Department of the East, Battery B. D. C. N. G., will be mustered out of the federal service next Friday. This statement was made yesterday at Fort Myer, Va., where the battery is now quartered in barracks.

Tomorrow morning the physical examination of the men prior to being mustered out will start at 9 o'clock. Men who are now on liberty will have to report back to their station by that time.

The battery commander, Capt. George G. Wilson, has been as liberal as possible in the matter of liberty for the men, and it is stated that every one has been given an opportunity to visit his relatives and friends in this city.

The work of checking up the property of the battery in readiness for its transfer from the federal service to the National Guard has been started.

Maj. W. E. P. French, U. S. A., paymaster at Fort Myer, is to muster out the battery.

Frank Shipley, a former treasurer and one of the best known citizens of Howard county, Md., died at his home at Savage. He was born in Howard county and was sixty-seven years old.

Is not this the Christ?"

Must Follow Example. "When the Samaritan woman was changed," said Mr. Smith, "she began to tell everybody about it, and she brought many people to Christ. So must you do. There are persons in this city whom no preacher under God's heaven could touch with a sermon, but whom you could bring to Christ. God worked through a Samaritan woman, a sinful creature before she found God, to bring the world to Christ, but that is the way God always works."

"It is said that we have four personalities, namely—that which people outside of your home know; that which the people in your home know; that which you know yourself to be, and that which God knows you to be. When you are willing to find out what God knows you to be, then is the beginning of a change in your life, of a change in your home."

There are persons in this audience who have been wondering why you professing Christians have not come to them. You cannot speak for God unless you have spoken with Him. There are two things you must know and be to be a true follower of Christ. You must know that you are not the man or woman you ought to be. You must be unselfish and humble. Then you must give your all to Christ. If some of you Washington people would surrender your whole lives to God there would be a revival in this city that would shake the whole country."

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the evangelist will deliver his first sermon of the day. His evening sermon will begin at 7:30 o'clock.
